students seeking Liturgy Specialization.

As liturgical ministers we are inspired and we are conscious of the "common priesthood of the faithful". Incorporated into the Church by Baptism, the faithful are appointed by their baptismal character to Christian religious worship.
(cf. LG11)

"Christ the Lord, high priest taken from among men (cf. Heb. 5: 1-5), made the new people "a kingdom of priests to God, his Father" (Apoc. 1:6; eg. 5:9-10). The baptized, by regeneration and the anointing of the Holy Spirit, are consecrated to be a spiritual house and a holy priesthood, that through all the works of Christian men they may offer spiritual sacrifices and proclaim the perfection of him who has called them out of darkness into his marvelous light (cf. 1Pet. 2:4-10). Therefore, all the disciples of Christ, persevering in prayer and praising God (cf. acts 2:42-47), should present themselves as sacrifice, saving, holy and pleasing to God (cf. Rom. 12:1). They should everywhere on earth bear witness to Christ and give an answer to everyone who asks a reason for the hope of an eternal life which is theirs.
(cf. 1Pet. :15, LG 10.)

It is a requirement for certification that CMFP Specialization students attend the following basic ministry classes before or during the program:

- Lent/Easter
- Advent/Christmas
- Hospitality/Ushers
- Liturgical Spirituality

Como ministros litúrgicos estamos inspirados y somos conscientes del "sacerdocio común de los fieles" al cual hemos sido incorporados por el bautismo, quedando así destinados por su carácter al culto de la religión cristiana y regenerados como hijos de Dios.
(cf. LG II)

"Cristo Señor, Pontífice tomado de entre los hombres (cf. Heb., 5, 1-5), a su nuevo pueblo 'lo hizo Reino de Sacerdotes para Dios, su Padre' (cf. Ap. 1, 6; 5, 9-10). Los bautizados son consagrados como casa espiritual y sacerdocio santo por la generación y por la unción del Espíritu Santo, para que por medio de todas las obras del hombre cristiano ofrezcan sacrificios espirituales y anuncien las maravillas de quien los llamó de las tinieblas a la luz admirable (cf. 1Pe., 2,4-10). Por ello, todos los discípulos de Cristo, perseverando en la oración y alabanza a Dios (cf. Act., 42, 47), han de ofrecerse a sí mismos como hostia viva, santa y grata a Dios (cf. Rom., 12,1), han de dar testimonio de Cristo en todo lugar, y a quien se la pidiere, han de dar también razón de la esperanza que tienen en la vida eterna (cf. 1Pe., 3, 15, LG #10).

4. Do you know the origin of these words?

SC n.10. Nevertheless the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper.

- Have the desire to celebrate

The Sunday Mass is:

- A tradition that was passed on to us by the Apostles.
- Starts on the day of Resurrection
- Saturday is the appropriate day to be the Day of the Lord

Catholics believe that the Eucharist is:

- What is on the altar
- What is around the altar
- What is beyond the altar

The prayer of all the Assembly is:

- praise
- reconciliation
- memorial
- Intercession

7. What is your hope in relation to this specialization during your time of study?

8. Upon completion, what will be your ministry at your parish?
